1844. Sept. 15. Sunday. Rose at 3/4 before five; rather late, ought to rise in time to go thro all morning devotions and be ready to sit down to reading or Study by day light: and it seems wise to go out thus early to take some exercise after Breakfast. Read Mrs White a Lesson in parts of Some five chapters: then read the account of yesterday — went to Dr. Lecture at 10 & wrote it out — after dinner read the Testament, went to hear Dr Hodge in Ch. then went home with Mrs Rice & Mary & Miss Hunter, and talked with them. Miss Alexander, of Wh. was glad to taste Miss Rice a bunch of grapes. Wrote a letter & mailed to Glenwood; found & Chapel time a newspaper Mark'd C Bard' went into Dr Jones Office inquired for and found him, and gave him the paper as found in my garden; Sd no more to him. Speaks at evening to night spoke twice. came home at 9. Mrs White midday gave me an indenture to Read B.P. Onderdonk's letter to Dr Rose Sealed. Mr Mott called me to

Hall from the Mail 5. Received 2.00 & hands of Mr Sam[l] Alexander for Expenses to Newtown where I preach[d] on Sunday Aug 28th. Agreed to preach at Newtown on Sunday next.

Sept 18 Wednesday.

Rose at working, 6 o'clock — prayed & read 1st Ch. in Mark, part of it, after B[fast] split some wood, mended yarn sacks.
Wrote a letter for Dr Gn. at 11 hrs & left to Dismiss A. M. Alexr for New York.
Called on Mr Stirling at College to invite him to Tea — Spent an hour in very pleasant conversation on the rebuke of the Pharisees building tombs of Prophets & Righteous fathers — and &c. opposing them does he thought must be exceptions — meaning they Shew their approbation of their treatment of Prophets in this day, & professing Such regard for the old prophets and this seems the meaning from other passages; Mr Stirling will write a Lecture on this Subject. After dinner Call[d] on Mr Lowrey who ask[d] me to preach Ev-ening to the Col[d] people, with Mr Thompson who agreed to do. — Call[d] on Mr Thompson and Staid an hour in very pleasant conversations. Me Cain not before have intimate me. not thrown much together and he has not one rather backward in making his acqu.ce tho it has been from cir-cumstances want of time, and hence not desirous to widen my circle of friends - hope to know him better in future.

D'H. exercises at 3 p.m. - afterward went to have a game of Rackets with the Rev.
I have no great skill at any game of such sort - nor ever had - but I enjoy it with them - his father joined us who is a most affable man in fact Mr Stanley took tea with us, and had to leave with me, wh. I did to attend prayer meeting at Queenstown - Mr Rowell spoke & prayed, felt some enjoyment.
Retg. Read a paper on my way up, called for Miss Paxson and came home little after 9. Paid to Dy 50 cents for May 5th Weather very warm, very dry & parched, and dusty - Wells quite low - and dirty.
Do not feel that I have done much in way of study - ought to write more than I do - Dr M. says she will be Thursday. 19 Breakfast 6. prayers before Breakfast - wh. is so much better than at any other time. Mrs ~~White~~ sent to Celia Van Nyne to see her. re Miss Arnett f. Africa who had much light interest to tell - she is very intellt and for her chances quite equal to many - if not most White girls. Her heart seems alive in the matter, and the means to go back when her health shall allow. May the Lord show me in this thing what he would have me do - and then give me grace to do it willingly. After D. H.

Lecture went to swim in Canal with Dod, pleasant - putting our faces near together we sank our heads under the water - O What a horrid sight his face was, bloated goggle eyed, one look was enough, found him pleasant companion & intelligent. Spent evening at my room writing Eugenie - about Mine went on to Mr S. Alexr's Room and took a pipe with him. Spent ½ an hour, came home and to bed.

Friday. 20 September.

Rose ½ before 6 went straight down to Phil's room wood; after came up & prayed. Selected a text for Sabbath afternoon at Dunston 2 Pet 3:18 in Greek to examine of word χαριν here used. Made an exchange with Berkeley Le Breton Ch. Dict. and Ch. Hymn. and gave one Hours writing 4 vols & Cyclopædia Pic Nic for 4.25 (Million was not paid, or) Hymn with a Copy be a very useful book Mine. Mr Wm. Richardson: after Dinner unusually warm, & sleepy so was kept awake one on book; at such moments I am staggered at the duties of future Ministry - how shall I ever go through them? O Lord just strength to one; I am well convinced before a man can preach the gospel with effect, he must feel it in his power. About 5 I went down to play "marbles" with the ... ren - prayr meeting to stay to tea, which I did and then went to debating Soc. 2nd reading of petitions of members to Ch. on profession of faith in Xch, how soon shd he be admitted to said Ch. - many spoke. It seems to me a profession, practice and what is now expected as taught & experienced are at variance - and hence qr how far is practice is binding on chs. Rd [illegible] with Dr M. to bed late & then home at 10.

Saturday. Rose at 6 having been awake one or two hours during the night. Went down and chopped wood, or split kindling: prayr after B'kfst. at 8. made some unfortunate remark about some one having taken the grapes which offended Mrs White and made things unpleasant for some time - shall not attempt to rebuke her; I had as well not have said anything in meeting, anything in earnest I might as well not to say it to her & a

I shall be on my guard henceforth — for I am not always sufficiently considerate in what I say & how. Dr H. preached at 11. 2nd & 18th Psalms Messianic. Ready called just before dinner, but did not remain to dine with us. Left he should take the folks unaware and — and for same cause. I did not urge him: he is in doubt as to what he shall do about a license he cannot quite agree to the Confession of Faith in the sense — and still pauses. Shall suffer in his influence at home. After dining sat down in parlor to work out my sermon at 2nd Town, tomorrow, work'd till 4½ o'clock. Down to S. River, where was invited on Communion and asked to preach for Col. people this evening — consecrated, preparatory lecture. Play'd marbles with Mrs. Cam home to tea and at 8 o'clock began service, did tolerably — and may God follow it with his blessing. Mrs White meant to have some ice cream, but I not go, even one Potton was here — letters for her from Mrs Hare. Miss Dew here to night. The work is over. Still very dry and hot and dusty. Grapes are in very fine order just now, but some poaching.

Monday Morning 23rd September

The Sabbath is past — yesterday morning did not rise so early as the previous. At 11 went to the Service & Holy on Rev. of x. Mr Yarnall preach'd at the Episcopal Church. After dining and completing my sketch for Preaching at Queenston went to S. Sch. Miss Lloyd came for first time, is of Hartford — left at 5 o'clock at preach at Queenston, had a very respectable audience, and hope what was said to them may not be without effect. walked up with the Rev Mr Pascoe Lecturer — afterward Mrs White & Sister and I went down to the Pt Ch. when Dr Bond with the

For many Sec. and we were all very much interested and profited by the spirit in the kindly manner of the Catholics here & abroad. Dined Rom. to be a time Ch. Lincoln Com. his design. For to gain he toiled, and hit out his work of Genius, wh. is far superior to Chateaubriand; as was his private moral character than his -

Monday Evening. Sept 22.

Rose 1/4 before 6, split wood for 1/2 an hour, dressed for Breakfast, did not have a season of prayer before it after this White came up, and had no chance, till hour of lecture on Galatians Read. arising at 1/2 past 9 went to Seminary — 1st hour was again occupied, tho not necessarily ill, and no prayer 4th. Went to Dr Miller on Ch. Govt — Coming out found Mr Vanvalk in the Lecture room, with him walked down to Reading room. Not only by divine time — found him very pleasant, he has been called to settle here over Epis. Ch. Cortis in doubt whether he will - both to leave his present charge to whom is much attached & thy to him. Up to this time no prayer, but as the Dr Scott who said felt as much the loss of season of prayer as he did his morning meal; O! that I did more hunger and thirst after righteousness Again after dinner I remembered my delinquency and ashamed knelt down by my desk - Have prayed any "vital breath" Rh. I thus be able to go without it.? Dr Miller says Aldermen plenary members of Christs Church; but some of the objections urged against this appear to me of no means even of straw. Commenced in part a letter to C. Ward, on page two White left. Dr H. lectures on Divinity. Divinity - we are to be content with facts as found in SS. 1 One God. 2 Father Son & H. Ghost each God. 3. Three not names of attributes, nor of the same person, there being ground for personal pronouns & Thou & the to be used of them 4. Father sends Son and works thro him

While Son Owen reads Father & Son Father & Son send the Bp. & Sft. & he Owen reads them. Coming home finished the letter & mailed it; also one for L. Ryder Cont. $3.00 Prof Alex. Sabre. For Mr. Anderson P. Master spanked; very polite to me.
Split some more wood, took tea, and passed the evening in reading in Views of Congrega. & Quackard: in reference to a debate on Friday evening "Was the O.L. independent?" Down to P.O. and forgot to put in Mrs Evans letter.
Weather is very cool, Hampston Undecided and dramas.

Wed. Morning 25. September

Saturday morning after B'fast went down to find D. Baird with a dollar from Mrs White, she has in truth a Catholic Sft, he was glad to see it and more so when told of it's Source - told me an Epis.
Lady in Mass. Ministers sustained a Colportuer herself - that they sus-tained an Epis. Minister in France and some other Denom. Professed -cans ask us to talk in public on wh. and I consented to an hour most delightfully — and he told me a great deal, a most affable man well informed and liberal in his views. He said when I told him I hardly knew what to go about the Mission the Lord would much needed at Valparaiso in Chili to preach to Americans there, and thus find access to the Spanish pop. the Am. and Engl. wd pay 1000 a year perhaps £ 200, and if so may God, who has so far guided me, direct thither. I will think of it told him wd consider the matter and perhaps for further Communications. He said he wd write me about it. It would be very pleasant to remain in my own land but the Gospel shd be carried any where.

O God make the path clear and fit me to walk in it diligently. Missed Dr Alexr Keith. Headache came on in meeting with out eating had 2 cups of strong coffee wh one white with all at a crisis when I supposed it had prepared for me — headache

Com ment off - Walked down to the Rice Place Marbles a while. came up to Sing. Dr H. no Lect. Lec. of Meeting of the Alumni of Sing. to increase to funds. Hamill asked me to preach for him next week Ad declined. S. Rice Sr Co take tea with us, but was prevented. And R. came round with R. Soo. Solomons & Mrs M. Ath Clinton to stay wk. he d.
Went to Speak at Sing in Evening Dr Mc. said Lect way was just to bring out the very meaning of the text Yeadon Spoke good Piece - but but if y not knowing it had to read it Close. Dr Chalmers reads very closely but is very animated.
Letter from Pa, at N York. can't come out him - says James came in the Morning - and is going to N. Haven & then Billerica. and Princeton O may God convince him to know way of Salvation. To bed at 10

1st. Morning 25.

Rose very late not till 9 o'clock, not many head 1st bell. Raining & long. Did not smoke till 11, time slipped away, not very well used, it is of great importance to know how to value and use time. Dr M. lecture. Mr Mitchel read a paper to shew an excommunicated Dr he rebaptised; Dr Rodgers to it. Mr Fowler town in the Rice, talking on same matter, I thot he was to the Entire Ch. Ch. same as a heathen, as he was before joining the Ch. he Dr not, Church had still its claim on him &c. Dr seem he revoked - a mans membership in the Ch. being his obligations before entering it, and indefeasible thereafter. It seems to me Mitchel is in the right of it. Mrs Green sent in an apple dumpling to Mr Turnbull - I sent her one some days since - had made my dinner, but ate it & it was excellent. I was known not very intellectual for an hour & ½. did not go to great Dr before Dr H. Lecture; Read in Gr tes after tea at Wh. Mrs Pagson present. marched down the street in the rain & it rain on I got there, found her Rowell & ½ dozen others - time flew a little but at length we raised & a funny woman, whom I afterwards saw home &c. of rain. Spoke already. I am prone to say things when with some persons wh. touch rather on delicacy - astonish & spoke of Robt Scotts language re: being much loosened, and all shut up - of such things never in my part Wh the my counsel: indeed it is hard for me to realize when I am stand in my course of study, and prep for preaching the Gospel; and when I am at Lebanon am in danger of being Soon. Bought a Volume of Locke for 1/- to night. B3D 10/2

Thursday 26.
Mr Ready took tea with us, & Mr Parvin - passed most of the evening down Stairs, about 8 went out to call on Mr Field who gave me a grand cigar Conversed very pleasantly for an hour - Shewed my ignorance in the meaning of the Law term 'fine' as used in breaking an entail. Mr Parvin stayed with me.

Friday 27. after dinner walked down to Lumberville to pay him change & give him the Treasurers receipts for tax. Smoked a cigar and Conversed very rationally. Walked on to Bayles Obtained a horse for Mrs White to take ride in Wagon just fitted up, Sarah & I one for the Studying for debate on Independency of early churches; Retired in Evening for the Night & Ride, pretty well Capt Willis in his father's Name asked me to preach Sab. evening Consented to do so

Sat. 28 Forenoon
Stormy rain, all day busy re-writing Sermon for Sab. morning had work, not been away from the house since dinner.
Good fire in my room, going to bed - sermon not completed at 11½ o'clock.

Wednesday Morning.

Sabbath yesterday preached in the morning at Presbyn. Church. Tonight must give up the S. School, since my Sabbaths are already engaged in part for the 2nd Church, and ambiable to other calls occasionally. Spent some part of the day in Completing my Sermon on John 1:17 - did not get thro' into writing it was not so familiar with this, as could have wished. Did not, for this cause attend Conference. In the Morning Prof. Addison Alex[r] on Matt 23:23 These ought ye to have done and not leave the other undone; illust[d] 1 The disregard paid to the body, even its mastication, in Cultivating the mind of Boys. 2 Time to cultivate pursuits by men on Sec[d] plans

3. the separating of some minor matters from any Bus. by some; and the other time of neglecting them by others.

Sun 12 A.M. — till Sunset
When ceased raining, and by 9.
Stars were out — had a tolerable audience; Dr M. went with me Text in Psalm 8 & 9 read the 2nd Prayer Some one said spoke not loud enough and rather slow.
Came home & good Mrs White said, on my naming it, a Cup of Tea too Made some wh. we drank between.
Mon Monday three Lectures Mrs R. M. M attended all Stone came up from Mrs Clark's for my Room very heavy Tuesday — 20 or 1/2 past 6: Went for Mason to set Stone in st. he did charging 24 cents for bricks & 50 for work - paid him, & good Mrs White afterward wanted refused it — grand & cause, & anticipate much comfort from it during the winter, if I live. Dr Alex & H gone to Bright no lectures. Mrs Rice gone to Mr Symmonds this eve. Played marbles in afternoon with A. Rice & W. Dod progressing some. Load of wood & Hend. Grapes still abound — no news from Lanes. Rebecca went to Newton. I had head ache, so had both ladies, when I rose ate no Breakfast, but drank 2 cups Coffee & it pass'd off. Meeting in morning of Board of Directors 1st of month. Studying Paul's Moments in Acts — in ref. to his ord" 13:3; am wh. inclin to write for Ind" ry.

Wednesday Night. October 2.

Rose at 6 pr — too late, but I find it very hard to rise early — Lenca my morning duties are performed with too much haste, and I find daily a want of proper meditation, prayer and Scriptural Study. My time passes away rapidly, and in looking back the past seems less, far less, improving than time should be - I have the natural desire to improve in head and heart - but fail in specifically carrying the desire out into completion. Others think me studious - but I am conscious of any great defect in the use of my advantages.

This morning the gate was missing. Some persons, whose milk was drawn off even down to the settling curd, had taken it into neighbors some said, whence it brought it & with the martins and replaced it. Bought Carlyles Past & Present to day for 25 cents. Wrote out notes on 1 Cor^ns in part - forenoon broken up I scarce know how - Wrote to Robt. for flour ticket & coffee for Mrs White. Had M. a letter from Cally Ward, days Samaa is with them. Played Marbles an hour before supper. Afternoon down to Prayer meeting at Lemuel's church spoke - not so cold as usual, had a cold; walked up with, smoked at Coalport, B. O. not opened walked up and around the Wrangle - talking on the Reason sin allowed to exist, whether &c he prevented by God without violating finite agency had best know wh. to think. Felt some measure of power the infinite character of God at family prayer tonight - 10 hour to bed, and I hope to rise early in to morrow. Read some today in the Hist. of Synod of Dort.

Thursday. October 3.

No lecture this morning Dr A gone to New York, son Wm. installed; read a little in Dr M. clerical manual, & with profit - think it a good book; read 2 chapters Pastoral Duties - some good sentiments and fine passages, tho rather fanciful. Done writing my corresp[n] for Dr M. tomorrow on the 2nd & 3d chs. 13: 3. Tried to look only at the facts in S. S reading nothing else before writing Dr H. Retired this afternoon.

We are enjoying the grapes much.
Played marbles an hour 5 to 6, came home found at tea — wholesome in my room, writing & studying in ref. to Braidwood — How shall I thank thee O Lord 10. Slight improvement over the 6.

Saturday. Studied at 12 and 40 Balmes till noon recitation of Dr Hodge — again till about 3. o'clk Walked down to call on Prof Mutch Smoked a cigar — and he gave me 1 dozen to bring away with me. Then set off going to see Mr Freeman of the funeral of Johnie child I had notice at 2 minutes after 2 o'clk but did not go, I wished I had, in this matter of Duty ort I am too backward. In the evening my dear Bro. Wm came, and may God bring him into this kingdom, since he has took him here.

Monday Morning. Sat. is Lassie I preached in Morning for the African Cong[n], and in afternoon went to Bro's. Ch. & Mr. Otis preached in evening Mr. Rigg at Mr. Church, went with Miss Demass.

Mission for a week.
Monday Morning Rose at 6 – D[r] Miller at 11, and D[r] Hodge at 3 1/2 – in my room nearly the whole day, and evening – 110[c] on. Saturday 2 letters one from Cor. Hettie, and one from Cally. I voted at the State Election, found no difficulty – Whigs carried the day in grand style. Cor Hatch. otter Contain[d] 1 Dollar – Shad loan Dan[l] 5 & and Prof. S. 35 Cents in Ten Cent Store.

Wed. Oct 23 Last Day of Millerism - Wrote to Mr Eyles about St Ives &c. Called last Morning on Dr Miller for Dr Cumming's book on the Jews. Shaking of Dr Scott's Jews of Brit - he offered me a Copy as a present. Attended to hear Mr White on Elocution - a very odd case, with super abundance of gesture - his remarks are some of them very good & sensible, but very much of the Eye. Mrs M. sick - nervous. Miss Dawson also - headache. Yesterday (Day before) Mr & Mrs Willats went home no meeting at Queenstown.

Motion to sit about 12 and off to Cows.

Friday - November 8. 1844.

My 25th birth day passed much as usual - was in Phila when had gone on Thursd. previous. with Mr Smith dined at Mrs Davis on Pine; took tea at Mrs Potters same afternoon Franklin Inst. On Friday dined with Mr Backus. Was Election day, and orderly. Sat. mark out to Council Hill Mrs W. (Mrs Millets) & Miss Odin Lofty cars, 200 out in Rain and after 2 or 3 hours walk drive back to Grand Coll. Gentlemanly polite. Then Pas all Mrs G.'s furniture, pictures, dinner &c. Wardrobe &c, thanked him. Went on top of the Building grand view, walked all about - Roof jointed as St Peters(?) at Rome, Moorish roof.

Left home after Lunch.
Sunday. Went to hear Dr Donne and share in Communion a very choice season to me.
Dined with him, Mrs W. also; went to hear Mr Barnes Some one else preached; in evening Mr Clark after.
Andrews &c. Dr Hawks I expected visit at St James. On Monday Dear Lucy started in Rain for D. arrived at 10 - felt sad when I had lost Dear. Cleared

Debate this Evening Does all Sin Consist in Vol. actions - This seems to place, too per - Does it not agree Spec. acts of will are sins - Direct prone inspections in acts of will -

1. Rec. S.S. says Let your affs. on fixing a throne & presents Motives &c to excite affs. same as to excite Spec acts of will.

2. Mr. says not to excite the affs in others, just as to use motives but to what to not apply, unless to will.

3. We are conscious that affs. are under our control, in same manner that Spec. volitions - they differ in degree not in kind, in power of creation.

Mr. Fan Li - finds place - that all are generic vols. under wh. triple acts are specific -

Jr. Rec. Buck of these there are no dispositions prior to actions

1 Rec. we are conscious of nothing of the sort (Reviews of Edwards

2 Conscience does not reckon us for it, &c. might be dispensed if we are not conscr. of it.
3. S. S. does not admit this - intrinsick yet aff. taints. is meant also Damnation - set out to show there is something behind all acts, call it what principle or disposition you please - illust. by case of Painter Savoured, then meant to prove there are no. sins, are sinful on no sins - but time run out.

Peccatum for act. Sin; and Vitium for inherent Sin in the mind divided into Understg Will then no need to prove aff. of will must be its acts — but not under its control &c - -ed by, only indirectly.
Dawson he does not think proof were conclusive, for the object is presented only to draw out the effort wh. does not amount to the to overcome the effort at all.

Be then the popular objections to ex. in a life back of a chs was one is not conscious of such.

But we are not conscious of our souls &c. directly. we are conscious of a chs wh. involve that.

So of the Social affections or dislikes we are not conscs. of this, but learn it f. the act of loving f. it's subject we are conscious.

In same way we learn the existence of these habitual principles or dispos.

Again all men show they have an intuitive knowl. of Habit and f. having words in any language to express this habit &c.

Again When a man is asleep is there no diff. between him and one whose acts are opp. when awake - that diff. must consist in a state of mind - call'd sleep or Dispos. or being seek to prove this has a more than 1 from conscience - Satisfaction for - Power and retaining for it - this to great & real ground of it's rebuke - we feel that we are defiled - some thing touches & all the heart is all wrong.

2. Opinions of men when removed from God, of us - an incredible, absurd mind is such, he will on slight provocation give way to anger.

Sunday, Nov 9 1845.

Rose at 6 p.m. Shaved season of prayer &c. Breakfast. at 11 Holy Lect. on 11 Ch. Sea. after dining walked with Chas. Bun Wentworth, smoked cigar, and nothing a little further to home. Dressed to Rep. Lect. at Ch. by Dr. Alexander. Read and took tea with the Misses Fitch very pleasant persons. He said it was unmanly to repine and grieve at the loss in Election we had done our part the loss was from circ. beyond our control. Conversing on Episcopacy he said the aspect from the Missouri prevalence of that form was the strongest argument, he had yet seen but forward — and the S.S. Apt Maiden was in this respect very weak. Mrs F. had just been reading about the earliest Puritans in their time and was much pleased with them, & was astonished at the pressure upon them. Came away at 8.

Home very bad cold in my head.

Yesterday did but little Stitching; making fine towels for Dining Room. succeeded quite to our own. Satisfaction. Mrs Dorr, and her sister Miss M. Fine expected to dine ~~to-day~~ to-morrow. All hands are getting ready for them. 12 o'Clock have been down to the Depot, and waited 2 hours and more they now are. Dames and I are to 'vacate' pro tem. to-day. Shall make a various quantity for a day or two. Wrote a letter to Bro Henry & inclosed $ dollars for tea & coffee sent by Mr Reed of college. Wholeday heavy up.

Thursday Morning. Stitching since Tuesd. morning, day time having been taken up in waiting on our visitors, to whom I feel under obligations for their attention to us when in Boston last June and exceedingly pleased with the party. to reciprocate visited Leroy. Library, college grounds & seminaries. Mr Field gave Miss O. a bouquet and I undertook to carry it and it grew, to my great weight; This evening I shall go in the church, and ask if they let out for N. York.

Mr Patterson call'd and I have given him $3.16 the amount from S. School Contribution Stephenith has last night, and gone ah Queen. How I am in for the arian Controversy. ah Dr Alexander has consented to wait for it to Tuesday next. I find it a thirsty road. I find servant for Lunch yesterday 50 cts.

Spend Com with Lucian, the mild. Preach Lastening at Church in town, Clear night, and good audience attentive Subj Law of Moses & Gospel, & proofs of Love; Pr at Dr Alexanders request - felt some & wd much more my need of Divine aid. To Dog read Communion at Long on Dispute in Public prayer. Came to Dog a head on the end of Calendar Dinner, Mrs V. gave me some Coffee. Dog the Cause to wait on me. Present her for Dismission with Dr Scotts Grace. Observations on N. T. with Mr. Rice was not fully Shed. Have written and Reading a Great Controversy - Done in haste but tolerably well. Sab night a Letter from Bro. Henry January. 23rd 1845.

Last evening spoke at Ameston - "the Devils & the Saints", "what have we to do with thee Jesus" is the spt of the Devils, also of the Men of Gadara (who coming out to kill him were frightened, and asked him to go away), also same spt is in those who reject him now, what have we to do with Jesus - Jesus Rebuked the men & tended superstitious fear & a spt of opposition, having some faint notion that he was Messiah.

Wet. noon Saml returned from Belleville leaving Lizzy with Mrs Bell. Geo is with a Comn Merchtn in N. York, but from all can get nothing - Mrs White today lent me £10.00, I have paid out 1.62 to Thompson for Binding &c; to Runcan 1.75 for myself, and .75c for Lizzy; to Parker 1.00 for self and 1.00 for her - She sent to Mary for New Year Souvenir, to Saml a Bible, to Hattie Sinclair's Lion, & to Ja Hodgson Rom. & to Cally Bibles. I am almost decided to go to S. America - there is a prom-ing field which Christ has cut out - and why not for me? Why should I not go to some other more desolate place, than I now find it is? China has been in my mind and Burmah calls, so too does poor Africa - where Mr Criswell has lately fallen, and yet what has been done in S. America? Then reigns Papacy unhindered - All has been done there than for the other places. My prayer is to God that he will guide me as to the path of duty, and after showing it to me, will cause me to walk in it. I am neither this way nor that I begin to feel more my dependence for the future calls of labour as a Missionary teacher in some distant land my mind is unsettled, but I can remain no longer in my cradle studying, I must go out and go to work - May God, my mother God, be my teacher Let me not err, at least not Independency has nothing conservative I think, and I do not believe it is practicable - the question is then whether Congregat. is conservative enough & and whether it can be in those adopting moderate Presbyt. in Counties or Provincial control. The Congregationalists have surpassed all others, but it may be from native force of character, and not from their order - and it may be they will hang on more if more tightly bound together. In Multitudes Conventions there is wisdom and the Ultra course of some Cong. Ch's in N.Y. shew that some hold back is needed. The gathering at Ipswich may not have been a Synod or Council or Convention as usually such bodies are now exactly but was it not the collected wisdom of the churches and to call it intends a court of appeals.

Monday May 27. 1844.

Yesterday afternoon I preached Bath Street. It is very good medicine for me to see the God of this world blinds their minds &c. I felt wounded in my subject, did not go out in the morning for a headache, wishing to save up my strength. Dr. the Rev. Prof. R. Reid preached Romans 12. 1st & 2nd to another set of strangers. He is a strong man and it was a Capital Sermon (may the Lord add his blessing with it) - Yesterday I was rather poorly, having a headache, and being sore bilious - I believe I have stained the muscle connective tissue not. On Friday last I wrote a letter to Pa, another to Miss P.

On Thurs. p^d Thompson 1.62 in full.
Mrs Whitt has for two or three days been unwell, not this gnaw letter. I feel the need of spiritual in preaching the Gosp. without this as the motive power, it is all head work and hence hard work - and here now this is the trouble with many Ministers, a text must be hunted up, and he must study to see what can be said on it. Now neither he shd so study the Bible that texts will be ever on his lips suggesting Subjects, or else take the plan of choosing a text to sing in the Sabt or wh. his mind is dwelling.
Another week begins O for more Spirituality, punctuality & Diligence thro the whole of it. Remember

Tuesday. Jany 28. 1845.

Rose at 6 - after prayer. read D^r Hodge on Abolition. it would be hard to answer his positions; many likes our Amⁿ slavery has prejudiced many minds against every thing of the name. The difficulty is how does a become the slave of B, Moses Solon allowing "man may hold property in man" "a fee to his nature" B's grandfather was stolen a Spaniard 50 yrs ago. A grandf. bought B. did not he belong to Spaniard, hence do he to A's Grandf.'s or did B's father belong to A's father? or does B belong to a. The analogy of landed property does not satisfy me yet.

Went down to see Mr Mason sick man, took Rudph. coff. & Sugar poor man with his little child about him, and he unable to do any thing; he said he had felt as if in a little paradise, having scholars enough to support him & family about him till his affliction came; yet he was quite cheerful, no repining not a word.

Friday Morning I have been reading Dr Hodge on Romans on Atonement a cogent article, he insists that while a display of Divine love is one object yet to Socinians, and a display of rectoral justice is another yet to the French Theol and N. School, yet the object first in the work was to satisfy God himself in regard to his divine attributes, & just from all Creatures to make peace with Him alone, depart from Him as the ruler of a Moral Universe. At the end of the Article he does seem to say something which cannot be said to answer it. He is severe upon Dr B. as misrepresenting either in ignorance or design, which he declines determining. I have just completed a letter to Mrs B. Silliman to whom I have not written for some time

I am far from having myself and

She almost wishes she had never seen me; she shall feel it more than any of my friends and relations.

Lebanon in Ct. Nov 26.

This day was decently interred the Body of the Revd Mr John Robinson who, after about a fortnights illness of the Diabetes, deceased on the 14th instant Aet. 74.

He was born in Dorchester and educated at Harvard College in Cambridge. At his first Setting out in the Evangelical Ministry he was sent to preach the Gospel at New Castle in Pennsylvania (81) from whence after some time he returned to his native county and in the year 1700 was ordained to the pastoral office over the Church of Christ in Duxbury, where he continued till the year 1739; when by reason of bodily weakness and some difficulties arising on acct of a Civil Contract betw. him and his people he was dismissed from his Past. relation to them by a Council of the neighboring Churches with a fair recommendation. After wh. he removed with the remainder of his family to Eds. where he had several of his Children settled; among whom he spent the remainder of his days. He was a learned and sound Divine laborious & faithful in his Masters Vineyard. In Civil life he was just generous & of a cheerful disposition and a faithful friend. His funl Sermon was preached by the Revd Mr Sol. Williams of Eds. Dec 4th 9

Attended prayer at Seem. this afternoon, by Addison; and it was gratifying. His prayer was short, terse & to the point. Some efforts is to be made to get Dr Baird to come and lecture in the Confs of Europe, Com. appointed Sabbath. Tea. Dan & I walked down to Mr Masons with Lizzie & Sloanes for Mrs White, they urged us to stay, but we could not as it was late. Mark came to carry Mrs W. home for us. Rec'd letter from Mrs Wilder - and called on Miss Ely, Prof. Henry came in and we stood till 10. he spoke of Williams on Am. Mag. Farther than Hinsdale, & Mr. carried to Lomes Plant & the Surgeons amongst Sr E. D. Mill late paralysis, was in New York - found advised to go to some Extent. Dr. Wharton's manipulations about his head began to make reactions down his arms, just as he began to feel sleepy, and in 10 minutes he fell in the sleep when the singing as when an ear to be asleep, and had been better ever since. Dr. Henry Sr. his going found him so that all opposed to the operation and when he felt sleepy he was more favorable, and his imagination more aroused — that the nerves running from the surface inward, of touch, conveying matters to sensation, and those from Brain outward conveying motions of the will and thus both sets mingle upon and so the effect produced — all seemed as Sceptics cured of their prejudices. asked for more candidates. Dr. not well heard while he was Sabb. Aug. 17th. My first at Sea; and being sick a heavy dull day - nothing to say to others & wishing to have nothing said to me. No discontent however, nor despondency Sabb. Aug 24th.

This time was able to preach to passengers & crew on deck Matt. 6:33. May it do good to some In seeing me Christ took my arm & said he had expected this Sabb. destitution to be his greatest trouble while away - but he had enjoyed the day much, seems a good man.

Sabbath Aug. 31. 1845.

No felt unworthy Still preached and the exercises did me good Eph 2:12 "without God. Audience attentive. Mr Carter hears seriously, & that he might be a Christian on the voyage. During the week the Boss told me he had been serious for some time, had been many wicked nights in a ch. for 10 years till short time ago had join'd temp. Soc. and then went; pointed to Jesus the atoning Savior & promised to love him & Rest. May he find the cross; and O may I be guided how to move among these men. Some seem serious among Passengers.

Sabbath Sept 7. 1845.

Rose About 7 had a good season of Prayer. Preach^d at 10½ Luke 11:13 Gods readiness to give his S^pt felt. warn^d and my mouth op^d some, spoke plainly – and O my heavenly Father grant profitably. After dinner had a talk with a seaman named Chas. White, an Englishman. S^d had been very wicked has drunkard & swearer, since he left Bath. wish^d to rec. Religion had been a disgrace to his parents away since 8 years old. was read^g Baxters Call – pointed to the atoning Saviour as Source of hope & H. Sp^t as the power wh. wd convert him: May the Lord if he have begun with him carry him onwards. I told

I shd pray for him & he must ask me any question he might wish & we try to ans. it_ Sd what did him to think so was Read's tract Jack Halyard & Tom Bowline (?) sh. was just his Case.

Talk'd too with Carpenter, he did not feel he was much of a sinner "had many no mo": I told him he had many "God & he own'd he had sworn & broken Sabbs. this Sd I is enough. Both in ans. if a man w'd be as much punish'd as if had broken whole; and perhaps not. He Sd he did not mean to say he was not a sinner, but not so bad as some — told him he had need of pardon and how he shd procure it.

Then saw a Seaman George McDonald reading — mentd to him was a tract Jack Halyd.

Sitting on bench of him so I 'have a favour to ask of you'
'We be glad to hear it Sir'
'That you will think of the next world'
'We do Sir & do sometimes'
'Where are you from?' 'Barrow Haven, Sir, was born in Roseby near Boston.
Urging him to rec. a Xn. he said it wd be a great work for so bad a man as he to rec. a real Xn.
I told him he cd not do it alone but that God promised to give his Spirit to those who ask, and help & him he wd be able. I say him to pray; he is I doubt not a wicked man, but he rec'd all I said very kindly.
Wh. if I did not think some prop. were so bad cd not rec.
Xns if they tried - told him there were none who could without the H. Spt. and with his aid all could — O may the Almighty God examine my intercourse with these persons with his abounding blessing & convict these souls. I am inclined to feel rather frankly towards Mr Thomas because of his absence from religious exercises; but O what was I once but a stout rebel against God, let me learn to be forbearing, though still decided with such persons.

Read Some of Gallaudet's Childs B. of Relig. Good so far.

Boy has read D. of S. Says it suits his Case & he wants me to tell it to him; told him I would give it to him when leaving the Ship.

Wed. Oct. 8. 1845.

Night before last Coward with his Thomas; I said visit not as cause but as a friend to speak to him. That thought him too careless about religion. He s^d he was less so than I might suppose. Both s^d I you are not as careful as you sh^d be; No Man can not perfect even is any one. Whatever it some are more so, and at least they - besides they rely on the merits of X. He was very civil this all, tho I spoke plainly; At last he s^d it required much reflection &c. So I s^d the sooner the days. His heart is set on the pleasures of this world and whatever he means, or hopes to secure Heaven also. God give me wisdom and strength to be faithful I begin to be afraid about the Pilot that he is deceptive: & if so it will put me on my guard, for the future. I have had no particular verse of Ps. in mind this day; much as I have approved the practice I have never adopted it. Since Coming on board I have spoken about their souls to Mr Mc Cotter, Addison, Crosby, Gibson & his wife, Carleton & Thomas and to Boy. Chas. White, Ed. Sindal boy, Geo. Mc Donald, John Mc Neil a Boy, & , & D. Brough and to Mr Pascal 2d Mate & Carpenter

Still I find not my work yet accepted of God — the civility rec^d yesterday in many seamen neglected. O my father come & shew thy Son how to count & Save Souls.
I feel afraid I shall be slothful & procrastinating in the ministry: May the Lord strengthen me to constant & untiring action.

Wdn. Oc. 22. 1845.

Yest. had a fit of mind: and during it ask'd am I ready: / God shd call me, to die? And tho' I felt no danger of it, yet strove to realize it.
I will try to look more at my last hours and the endless hours beyond it; to commune with death.
Some one tells me that it has been intimated that I tell the Capt. what I hear the passengers say: first time I have been so

Chap. Cathy - if I can recond. Hum I am not deceived the Chap. thinks the one occasion I said him I heard a remark made at the table of Mr. M. as I did. which I thought was low, and said to him never mind it. Yet the fact shall just me in my guard not to speak of others faults behind their backs. when there is no good object to be gained by it or when true. it is best to be silent. The old Eng. Pr. is "I am resolved not to speak of a man's faults behind his back; nor of his praise before his face".

There is much truth in what Shak. says "Familiarity breeds contempt". If a man is to instil. men for good he must not be too familiar with them in a worse extreme than Simmias & Cebes. And here is an error in the me, I am too free with men about me: so that they see in me the Companion rather than the Minister I will not render myself Cheap any more, or like to try not to. In reading Ep. to Heb. I understand it better than I ever did before.

Tuesd. Oc. 28. 1845

Have begun to Study and write on Ep. Heb. in order to bring my views of it to a more fixed form — to see what of it I do and what I do not understand. Came to day here

Engaged on third Ch: O my Father on high teach me to understand these sacred writings. Have been reading Allison, and the more I read of him the less I esteem Napoleon.
There is more bad feeling among the passengers than I would please to see: C. is very sulky for some reason; and says little to any body — I get only mono--syllables; what is the matter I know not, but am not aware of having done or said anything myself. Very severe re-marks are made by others, but I have nothing to say.
I was sorry to hear Mr Barlow ~~talking~~ some things — he and I ought not to expose any fault to one many perceive. I hope pres-ent state of things will improve

My heart is pained to see the indifference to religion among those on board. The language I hear is generally disrespectful to religion; but there is much worldliness, and the sick day is put far off: O if I might see fruit of God's Spirit among these minds, and might hear the Q^r for the way of Pardon. What pleas. it w^d afford me. The Boo^n who seemed serious I know not what to say to him; he has, since Compelled, come & and gone to work hard — So I fear he was deceiving the Capt. Chas. says his bad habit of profaning hangs on: I fear for him, but O God can save him not. I have some desires to see my Bros. enter the pale of God that they se. may be saved & that they may be the means of bringing the truth to others.

Frid. Oc. 31. 1845.

Ship Miss. My 26th birthday is near at hand; a year since did think to spend it here - but reviewing past life I hope I can see God leading me for good. There is an undercurrent of self conceit, in me; and I feel at times as if my efforts in the world are to be effective, and this so much that I seldom think there is a probability of death for a long while. Now I hope God has given me talents for preaching the Gospel indeed from experience I am sure he has: but O may I not become proud of it - nor fall into a foolish and wicked self confidence - nor into a habit of indolent reliance on natural capacities. Such a man should judge as Cand.s of his faculties as he can, neither under nor overrate.

To day the Captain asks me "Why Mr B. looks so cross at him" says "he has heard that Mr B. s^d he w^d not speak to Capt till Capt. did to him: that he had joined with Mr Thom in talking &c. After Mr B. ask^d one or two Qu^s on Capt.' o^n I he asked me the same q^n about Mr B. Capt. said he had given no cause &c. He knew of I s^d he had looked very grave & perhaps that was the cause; and besides that the Stone not being put up had given satisfaction from remarks he had heard made. Mr B. s^d he had given no cause so far as he knew. Here is a specimen of Godliness grown up from mere imaginary causes, or in great part. I saw the same things; but having given no cause det° to await the issue; spoke to Cap. when met him - and have had no diffico. grow up, for he says he was much and did not feel like saying anything to any body. I wish to say nothing and to know nothing in all this much like matters - not to take any sides: but when my opinion is asked to give it with kindness and candor.

Many many remarks are made in my hearing by pers. regarding C. I wish not to hear them, but cant avoid it. But this will learn and make down that when I find a person who to me, or before me to others, speaks needlessly ill of another; I may be sure he can be confided in but will do the same thing he has my back too.

A dog that will fetch will carry.

Sat. November 1. 1845.

Another birth day comes round now I am 26 years old; the time do long look'd forw'd to, when thro my prep'y Studies I sh'd enter on life's active duties. I think my feelings are grateful to Him who has so far led me and kept me - that I have been guided to lifes object study them to religious study and a ministerial life. I am often reminded of the dispective manner in which I have pursued my studies with such superior advantages. For tho I have not gone thro them hopefully, nor have waited them entirely - still I have to myself shame in view of the little I have learn'd compared with what there was to learn & what was within my reach

But it is not too late now and tho' saving the fact: will be and remember the speech, I am determ'd to make this first grand of my professional life one of more mental and spiritual acting than any before it. And O thou God whom I serve strengthen me thus to do. All this day I have suffd intensely from a headache, but towards night it slackens and goes off.

The Capt. says his matter with Mr — is now all smoothed over; and says I do with an honest manly satisfaction. I do not think he was to blame in the affair, much if any at all. And in minding the matter up, he has certainly acquitted himself like a Jew. The other person denied having said anything behind his back how he cd say so I see not; and then one others must think as I do — and they have not scrupled to say so: I certainly heard him read to his Honour something he had written about life on Ship-board, in which most unhandsome as well as unchristian things were made of the Captains; of this I have said nothing to C. but I cannot confide in the other man, after all that has occurred. O how careful the Xn shd be to keep his Character without a blemish, perfectly spotless; how can he without the breastplate of righteousness do battle for his Lord among Sinners.

The Purser tells me that he hears one or two on board speak other saw well of me; that I have gained the Confid. and respect of all: if he is not mistaken I thank for it — and hope he will help me hereafter to be as faithful &c. and let men see that I believe & practice what I say. And O my Father may I enjoy the privilege of winning souls, or some good to christ.

Sabbath. Nov 2. 1845.

Slight headache again; yet I preached in the Cabin, and had very good attention. Captain said I had given them a good discourse; that it touched him and he felt it. Was on doing good Jas 4:17 'He that knoweth to do good & doeth it not to him it is sin'.

Afterwards my head ached worse thanes ensued; during which I suffered a good deal, lay down but could not sleep much. Passed time with Captain sitting at his Stateroom door, and my pleasantly; tho my pain Continued. He advised Coaks feet and glass of Lemonade which the Steward hastened to in a trice, thanks God for the mercies which bind my pain.

Thurd. Nov 3. 1845.

Did not rise till noon; took breakfast in bed; Capt. sent me some of his Sugar & steward made nice toast. "How Good my God is in providing me with friends: And whence arose this thought? It is becs. of my kindness and care of to others — let remember my friends are generally Gods friends and also my kindness &c are chiefly owing to His gracious sway over my mind. The lines thus far have indeed fallen to me in very pleasant places - and I have met with but little to irritate me; the rising feeling reminds me at times that the tinder is there and only needs a spark to make it burn.

Have written to day a letter to Mary Adams, which I hope will please her & May dear Lizzie.

Just a day or two since of an occurrence several years ago 1834 When living with Mr R. in Newark, 2d time, boarded with a Widow Mrs Johnson in Mulberry Str; with Bro. Johns, a Mr Clark and some one else whose names I forget. And we used to sit up taking the ladies out and then play cards in parlour - And

O dedacus!

I was willing to act so meanly to a pious woman who was by necessity compelled to take boarders; & how ashamed I feel in coming to it - yet I do so in order to see what I was before Conversion. And one night in particular when Mrs S. came into the room, having no doubt swallowed all her Christian feelings, and seizing the cards made sign as if she wd throw them into the fire. She however did not do - & if some such things in my life had never been done what pamper'd thoughts I'd now be saved. I hope these fallen sins are pardoned but their baseness is indelible May they lead me to pity those who neglect religion, and touch my own feelings in their weakness.

The Vices of Heathen Stand in the way of their Rec. Christians — In Christian Lands, there have been Men in Armour; but the pursuits of Civilized life, take an equally Engrossing hold on the unpenitent mind — Wealth Dress & honour: So that among the Savage and Pagan Religion has to do hard battle, among the Latter, if anything, harder.

Capt. has not matters to a Conclusion; to day Mr Nonus had a long talk with him, & found he had been some way.
Wh I. Sd some threw out that Mr Turnbull, had made report to Gd. of what passed; but that he did not believe it. Capt. assured that I had not a carriage; that I did not take sides, but wished all well & to do all Good. Mr. T. S^d he that I was really a gentleman. I had s^d to C. that Mr. T. had always been very civil to me, and this he told him — Since he has been very civil and attentive: would that I c^d lead him to ways of piety. But he is not a man as at present I c^d confide; in regard to others he is at times thin-jacked, and this makes me doubtful.

I would not be suspicious & jealous in my judgt of men but yet I am bound to see things as they are if I can, see. The error consists in being uncandid; now a man needs to be candid that he may neither overrate they more than undervalue the goodness of Char. if those about him. It may be pleasing & romantic to think ill of our neighbours; and if there be good basis for a good opinion who can fail to rejoice: But if there be not, why indulge a false sympathy, flatter and deceive ourselves?

One of the highest and noblest traits, as well as most rare, among men is that of Candor joined with kind feeling: Candor in Opinion, Candor in Expression. To think of men without prejudice, and when occasion calls for me to tell them my opinion of their char. and Conduct — is difficult; regrets many an effort. But I mean to try for it.

Thursday. Nov 6. 1845.

Friday November 7. 1845.

This P.M. found in my room a pair Coarse Raisins which the Captain had placed there, It was very kind in him, likewise a day or two since he sent them some almonds — with out crackers. since others have done what they have of late all his confidence seems to turn to me, and I receive if anything more attention than before. I have need to be on my guard, and not to pull more in to the same error I have striven to avoid hitherto — of commuing too freely even with him in regard to the conduct of those around me. The only safe way is to act as under the Divine Eye.

Mr B. began speaking on the subject to me to day; that there would be should have very little to do with it, after landing or before the end of the voyage; that things had been reported far more than they were;
that a paper he had read to Thomas was told of as something to be published, when it was only a little criticisms in a journal — the same ungenerous thing that he read near my door. I perceived.
To all this I had but little to reply — further than that things had been said which were out of place con. St. I was sorry to hear. The fact is he has been thinking on the outside of his head, and has thereby got into trouble – but got resolution to own all up and thus come out of it, and disposed to cast the blame any where else but where it belongs on his own indiscretion.

By taking the course I have, entirely the respect of all has been gained; and they rather look on me as an impartial person. Capt. says something about making some acknowledgment from all hands when we go ashore: what it means not, but judge a Complimentary letter, or something of that sort. Any thing else I should doubt the propriety of accepting, and think he does not mean it?

Now in the Ship there are two parties; there young men, who are rather scorned - and one party, and they call the others the Aristocracy. Now, as C. suggests that he and I shd go, I mean to be courteous towards all but riding with none. In Peterhouse I had a few minded, disinterested friend with whom I felt intimate; more so than with any other man in all my life. At College I knew George Bushnell better than any other man there. A man must not have many intimates; and the one to whom he imparts any thing. He cannot be too open-hearted in intercourse with his God, and himself: but may rarely be with his fellow-men

Wrote some part of a letter to my dear father; my heart is often at home with him. I do not feel so much inclined to write as I think proper, is strange. She has been very kind to me, tho still I cannot feel that she has done for me more than I have done for her. Not that there is pecuniary obligation on my part: but she did and I think does love me, & that almost nothing. And as God raised her up to assist me in my course of study; so as far as my power will allow it shall be my effort to assist and Comfort her, as his servant. There is a selfishness, or a leaning

Now in the Ship there are two parties; there young men, who are rather scorned - one one partay, and they call the others the Aristocracy. Now, as C. suggests that he and I shd do, I mean to be courteous towards all but siding with none. In Peter Seely I had a pure minded, disinterested friend in whom I felt intimate; more so than with any other man in all my life. At College I knew George Bushnell better than any other man there. A man must not have many intimates; and the one to whom he imparts any thing. He cannot be too open-hearted in intercourse with his God, and himself: but may easily be with his fellow men.

She has been very kind to me, tho still I cannot feel that she has done for me more than I have done for her. Not that there is pecuniary obligation on my part: but she did and I think does love me, & that almost entirely. And as God raised her up to assist me in my course of study; so as far as my power will allow it shall be my effort to assist and Comfort her, as his servant. There is a selfishness, or a leaning towards it at times an humbling of her. Think not to feel bound to pay her much attention, as not much indebted. Second again to pay her a great deal & be assiduous in it; in order to keep her favor, and to win more, with an eye to future advantage. There are mean suggestions, and which neither ought to be nor should be harboured in my mind. It shall not be with me a matter of profit & loss, but of Christian friendship. God help me to be pure & not selfish. Oh! Oh!

Mond. [illegible] 10. 1846

Off C. [illegible] so that we think [illegible] the weathers generally very clear weather. The Men do not attend, as the Ship was not work, and I [illegible] sick bowel, and indeed all things out of shape and sorts from the weather — we had no Divine service, tho I had made ready. This the first rainy Sabbath since we started. These are the symptoms & motions of sea sickness — first sea is rough — second a dull pain in eyes, like stand up — third movement of bowels downwards — fourth nausea — fifth Slight griping pain in upper part of abdomen, which followed right off by vomiting what is in Stomach a.m. night, & clear like _ sore th inspired feeling and perspiration.

After if tired & sea go down some sequel of Constipation ensues.
There is also a disposition to hiccoughs when nausea begins.
& retching.

The day was rather a dull and thoughtful, read little thought little said little - and making my own bed tidied in, prayed afterwards and went to sleep soon.

During the night I dreamed; in comp[any]
- with some friends, and that I made proposals of marriage to Miss [redacted], who seemed more handsome and pleasing than ever; and, even in my dreams, that she accepted my advances.

And then asking my fortune comes, when I spoke of Fulgarino, replied 'with whom I have nothing to hold me here'.
At this moment we were sitting at table with other friends in St. Mark's, she on one side & on the other, and our conversation no secret; in ans. to that I cried 'Ah you're worth a dollar'. On which she modestly and pleasantly blushed.
Now that I am awake I am inclined to smile at my gal-lantry and judgment both; for having mentioned such an esti-mate to a lady of such sensibleness, refinement and worth Whom I have long thought would more a real prize to any one who was in circumstances to offer her his hand, and favored with her acceptance. Tho so far as memory serves, I inclined to think it was said in pleasantry, merely to shew that her self denial was appreciated — and not to define her value. Howsoever the impression of the dream is not to make me think less of her; her appearance had all that is winning in modesty, charming in simplicity, and pleasing in print. 'Tis strange how these in short the fragmentary dreams of day, take life like form and seem to be realities.

The truth is while I attend many ladies, and often have found pleasure in their society, and could have the most any mind, may have pursuit in any mind attained, of a connexion with them. Yet I discover not that I have ever truly loved one; indeed I am used to loved none, if this idea of love be attended one — that the parties feel they cannot be happy, or as happy in any other union. How I have never seen in [illegible] object — union with whom I have thought necessary to my highest happiness: And tho' there have been two in reference to whom I have entertained such thoughts — yet having never made advances to them, when included all those of the kind one, long since married & another since ill health I found no occasion of writing what new: nothing which could not be messaged by the days "there are as good fish in the sea as ever were caught". Heard of Caroline & Kate moved Coined. But this letter should be against I have always felt I must form no such engagement, till my post in life was more certain; and hence no steps have been taken which might have increased such sentiments or refused into something more permanent natural has very seldom occurred.

To have so much Share in our thoughts on the Subject; and to allay such emotions so soon that I think they cd not be plants, nor the seed of Tuberose Nor do I believe she cd love, unless long acquainted, and finding qualities of sure worth; and then I should have ground to hope it wd on[ly] go to increase a Friendship.
This Love at first Sight & Concourse to be a sort of Ro-mantic nonsense.

Tuesd. Nov. 18. 1845.

Captain Henry came to my State room this morning and I read to him my letter of instructions from Com. of Fron. Er. Society: which speaks of my going to other ports after gaining a knowl. of Language, to see how things are and what can be done in one way and another. He then again urged the usefulness of such a trip and renewed his former kind and Christian offer of passage free in his Ship, as a friend with him, and offered all his influence in making acquaintances.

Now there is but one thing in the way, and that is I have not yet a thorough of the Language sufficient for speaking in it, and so cd not expect to do much good. However much information might still be gained and the Co-operation of persons in different places. I explied and have found that I could be pleased to accompany him if I sh[ould] on arrival and consultation with Mr L. M. see it to be the path of duty

Sc would be very pleasant to see the cities and towns along the Coast: and besides I could gather materials for letters home and thus be able to send something to my dear Old Father, which would be very pleasant and my duty. Since no Son can be, if he would, absolved from the claims of his parents to a necessary share of aid and comfortable support of they are alone and unfriend--less powerful he cannot learn them unprovided for, even to Carry the Gospel on in any Service of God it appears from what Jesus says "if a Man say to his father this Corban that is a Sacrifice". They parents are not to be left still, far from independent; and so I feel bound to render them additional aid if God will put it in my power.

I am often surprised on board the Ships to see how little of the potheness of principle some persons have, of whom better things may be expected, and who think as gentlemen. And in regard to the only female on board, the mill's wife. Her inoffensive modest, reserved ways endeared her to all. Another and more cruel fate awaited a stone, and made no room for her when she Comes up: or sits by her and never addresses one word of Encouragement or Compliment to her.

I think how we they like, or what we they say. if she were a relation of ours and saw her treated so by others. Dear, bolter

-ness calls on a man to treat with attention to her feelings and wants any woman who behaves well.

Let this be another lesson for me.

This morning at b'fast Mrs B. when Corn bread was handed to him twice broke off the crust of the Cake and left the soft Sodden part for others.
I could not but think less of the man for being so selfish - Another lesson for me ith this how it makes no difference in his feelings that he ate the worst crisp crust: but o how much in my estimate of him.

Our Sensual gratifications are for a moment, and all is over; their moral influence on ourselves and on others, if we did wrong in procuring them, remains long after.
I am not without need of this caution, the rising of self on such occasions and from such causes I have myself felt-and, I am ashamed to say it, have yielded thereto.

Friday. November 21. 1845.

Off Cape Horn 200 miles N.S.W. Here have we been now two weeks lacking less than a day. Wind with West in it all the time; and one or two severe pronached Gales. Saw knight of the tallest willow yet seen above the bottom of the trough of the

the Line of the Knolls on Col. back of the house; if any thing less. Names may then be called Hills Nobly; Mountains or ⅓ hyperbole. Capt. says there about as large as are usu seen here. 2° Mate says so too; but not quite so large as of Cape G. Hope.
The Voyage is long; but when we come to be acquainted the winds & waves we must take them in their own way. And tho Ause. to go onward and teach my field of labor; yet I hope God's will is mine: which in Such Circumstances of Comfort is no great Matter of acquiesence I have tried to ask myself in the Storm, as to my readi-ness to sink into death.

I find difficulty in answering Firstly in realizing Danger or Fatality; Second in getting clear of a sort of recklessness; which I can often see in such life in other things. This from a presumption of safety which all are prone to, and hence is dangerous. But I do think I can lie down, and rest on the sufficient intercessory help of the Savior; and do so with confidence. Still the sense of deficiency upon deficiency; lack of love, lack of obedience presses on me, & whispers distrust of my faith—not of the object, but of the prominence of the act.

Saturday Morning Nov 22. 1845.

I have of late seen more clearly how natural religion works in with revealed, instead of being opposed to each other— as we often thought. And the mass of men who came out theat. are rather those of omission and inaction, than of attention. They say they begin with God as a Father of his Creatures: and that others begin with him as a sovereign — meaning it would seem an arbitrary disposer. Neither is, I conceive, correct as to natural or moral truth; for in both God appears as the beneficent Sanctifier in his provisions; and at same time wrath seems which must be accounted for in view of some additional Character — which is that of a Ruler.

My main difficulty with the Conf. of Faith is that it sets out not as I think the Bible does not — with a Chapter on degrees of God.

Wh., whether true or no, seems rather resting on arguments drawn from our ideas of what God must be, and how act as an infinite being — than on the plain declars. of S.S. And the doctrines of grace when built on this basis are not so secure as if we start with the means Scripture & present Disp^n, as to S.S. and Experience — and it is known from that he does or can enter into [illegible] naming of God as a Son.

Some Men have said the power of H. Spirit in Conver-sion, means the power of the truth he has revealed.
Now this is clear true, & this, so far as it goes, the way y^e Romans is, is this all it means? No there is, say S. S. say. its ordinary force, another & immediate influence. The Question of which is neither absurd nor impossible as the fact admitted, of a past mon--tration shews plain. That an inward influ. must then have been exerted on the minds of the men inspired cannot be denied: and if that was then done by the same agent now, can for the same, or for a diff^t and consequent purpose, Except his influence still to enforce that already revealed truth.

often all ignorance prejudice and assumption are mixed up in large measures in the men of this world; and as a general thing a little touching, but kind reproof, time and time is most in place, and will do most good.

I must lay aside the idea of making every body act to do me just as they ought; but see that do as they will I am not to suffer on account, in a degree, as I shall to be still and hear everything and say nothing said at all times; but to give strokes very seldom when there is occasion, and they will be more prized: and to give them not in asserting my own rights and dignity in standing firm for what is right and true when it is necessary. With this sentiment temper will have less tendency to rise up.

Today I told Capt. H that I heard in my Room some time ago a person read 3 or 4 pages to another, of whose reading we had heard before; and that there were in it things Mr. C would not unhandsome and unchristian and this was that it be the Rule of intimacy now. Then, the one having thus placed in power of the other.

When at prayer this morning I asked, and felt assured the need of the Suspected Sins done & the Graces increased not to be still and bear anything and everything Suid

rebukes very seldom then like judicious, kind Guy will be more prized: and
sentiment temper all thou less tendency to zero up.

Today I told Capt. H that I heard in my Room some time ago a paper read from one part to another, of whose reading we had heard before; and that there were in it things Sir. I not unhandsome and unchaste and this was not to be the read of intimacy betw. them; the one having thus placed in power of the other.

Then at night and morning I asked, and felt round the neck of the suspected Lord & the Devil was mocked.

I am much pleased with the following Copy of a Letter from the Great of Prussia, given in Kohl's and Hist. of Germany.

"You are quite right in believing that I work hard, & do so to enable me to live; for nothing so nearly approaches the likeness of death as the half slumbering listless State of idleness."

"It is no longer requisite to I should live, unless I can live and work". There are sentiments worthy of this great mass, and also the key to his greatness.

Fit for the adoption of every man, be his Station what it may; how much more fit for the Christian, who has so much work to do, and who can only live the life to which he is called by living constantly and well.

To day I have preached to those around me; no seamen were present; as the weather is so uncertain here off the Cape. Isaiah 1:3 was the passage "it knoweth his owner &c."

Consideration was the thing urged; the more earnest than I visited and had hoped. But it may be God will bless even a feeble effort However it will never avail to put forth careless and weak exertion - asking that God is to make up unfaithfulness & efforts I wish I felt in all things the power of dust more than I do; and richer more exalted. &c to God.

The day has been of a sheath but I seem to have improved it slightly in a way of Reading & meditation. The prime is the acquisition of a great many good resolutions; but to be active and Entitled now and to mean to be doing and less two Diff[t] things.

It pains me to see how my neglectful my letters are to the truths of I. of all

To day I have preached to three and me; no seamen were present; as the weather is so uncertain here off the Cape. Isaiah 1:3 was the passage I chose "the ox knoweth his owner &c.

Consideration was the thing urged; the more earnest than I wished and had hoped. But it may be God will bless even a feeble effort However it will never answ. to put forth careless and weak exertions, wishing that God is to make up unintentional defects I wish I felt in all things the power of duty more than I do; and richer more as mine. &c to God.

The day has been a very healthy but I seem to have any more of it slightly in a way of reading & meditation. The golden time is the reservoir of a great many good resolutions; but to be active and Christ like we must be mean to be doing and of our two different things.

It seems me to see how my neglectful my fellow-pas- ours are to the truths of Scripture this I hold, and pray to be most importunate that God would come in his own and change their hearts: we must help one another in our tasks in the way.

I fear another person is intended has been decided injurious; both from indiscretions, and from other things which Christ cannot find so mild a name.
(And, at I hope the birthing may not prove vain) Soon altogether.

Mr Barton I am told said among the passengers one day and after Divine service I think that preaching was his trade and he had now turned to some other. How a man of the holy Ord day such a thing can in jest among worldly people I know not. And how sinned he caught up, how long remembered! David be thou also on thy Guard.

Sudden words in a few are arrows, in a Minister poisoned - venomed weapons.

There are in my mind two strong leaning to preach the Gospel – there are selfish emotions, and an insipient hankering for some high station at home: and the sort of expectation of a future return home, when I may rest to Eternity; this comes in under cover of great usefulness. Now it may be my duty to return home & labour here, but I wish & ought to, I am so, stand especially on a selfish basis, to any such effect.

May God assist me to a firm purpose of living his; and sincerely asking where I can do the most good; and of doing freely.

Mobile. Nov. 26. 1845.

S.W. of Cape Horn. Eighteen days have been about here "off the Cape" And I must own I begin to feel anxious to get onward. Nothing like running a thrust; but tired, & sick of hearing so much said about it. I sympathize with Cape Horn and he at times feels rattled and impatient.

I have asked myself if it be not meant for me; I have meant since we set out to speak privately to the Captain, but have not yet done so, on the Subject of Salvation; and I wish to find a good chance to address him.
It has occurred to me to sit down and write him a letter.
I wish to do my duty to him and hope God will then to give me strength. He would be joyous if he might be but to know & serve the Lord Jesus Christ; and looking to him for Salvation himself, might lead a preacher of him to others. I must cry "the wrath on him. Perhaps one thing which has made me more backward to speak to him, has been that he B. spoke of him as such an immovable character.

My Resolution is taken, trusting in God for grace to keep it & for his blessing on the effort to approach him & kindly urge on him what he now neglects. Yours truly.

Saturday. Nov. 29. 1845

The week is gone; but we are not — the beginning to go this afternoon would be glad to get out of this, tho' as I say to Capt. Hanny our duty is to do all we can to get on and then patiently wait till God bid us. Have read Allison diligently, and with pleasure any day since monday; read and written on 10th of Hebrews: 'tis useful to do so without consulting, more than memory compels one to, the views of others. May I read S.S. independently, but still not at random To take a Chapter thro' and write down all I can explain, and state what a Comfort gives much more clearness — indeed what is learning but tracing the bounds of knowledge? Certainly that Man is wise who has found out what things are beyond his reach.

The question often comes up in my mind have not many of the opinions, dogmatically put forth, on which Men have been most divided, been on subjects which lie beyond the true limit of human grasp?
And if so they might have been prevented, avoided, by fixing what that limit was.

I have not had yet a good chance, as it appeared, to speak to Mr Carter; but am resolved to do so.

He and I concluded that in the matter of the Indians in Jamaica, and in Hindostan that justice would not mar out their treatment; but yet good had been done to the Caffres - While in Case of found Land, and that the Conduct of our own Gov. of late to them could in no way be justified. He says Mr J. Q.
Adams in Boston lecturing was justifying the Eng. movement against China on one ground that "they had no right to exclude the rest of the world from their soil"; this I think would never hold, for if excluded I have no right to forbid a man to come on my ground. God has so ordered it that our interests lead to intercourse, but to compel a man to it or a nation will have very mean answer.

To morrow I hope to preach on this "What will it profit a man if he gain the whole world & lose his own soul"?

Mond. December 1. 1845

First day of Summer here, began with Snow Squall.

Yesterday I did preach on said text; and felt much warmed but see little impression made. Gen Thomas did not attend the Services, staid in his State room.

Engaged reading Some Chapters in Job, when Eliphaz said to him Ch 4:5 "But now it is come upon thee & thou faintest". how easy to Comfort others, but when sick Comes home we are horrified.

Shew the mind remains clear

At Sea — North of Cape Horn

How much of the gentility of fash. folks is merely in feathery externals; as for instance a man here in this Ship, cannot eat with his knife — he must even carry his food mouthward with a fork. This is nice: who will at same time sit about before a female even with no neckcloth suspenders — indeed with shirt collars meant one li to waistbands. And even so when told of it being a thing complained of & one of our men will say, with a sneer, "may be proud to sit in same room at any rate, even if he had nothing on. If such things can attach to a true gentleman may I never become one.

But bah! they do not, cannot and this man with all his air, look & pretence is not a gentleman — else my judgment is worthless

This morning at 2 o'clock awoke feeling uneasy and cd not get asleep again for a long time: at last I did and then cd hardly wake up, drowsi-ness almost Lethargic-
-tion what caused I know not Rose at 10 ate nothing at all; felt some better after the cleans-ing of bowels by means of salt water, having been constipated for 72 hrs Dull feelings ret'd at noon, lie down again, and slept until 2 then ate Dinner. Since better the pain in head and eyes. Ho been reading Allison Esq. quite painful, what is the difficulty I know not.

Monday Dec. 8. 1845.

Yesterday I read memoirs of Rev. W. M. McGregor, pleased, and profited too I think. May I pattern after his holy fervour, his graces of advantage gained from Private Life and of working the rich mine of Sunday Schools.

There is sort of vanity playing in my mind when reading of such eminent persons - in that I am am ready to fancy myself gifted with, comes like them. Now in this time I cannot know what I am capable of doing, and there is no harm in the dream to do great things for Christ, for his sake - but to wish to be an Edwards in order to have a good report among the Churches, is too low a motive for one whom the love of Xt. Xt constrains. Certain it is shame made many brave efforts so far in life; and this fancied possession of talents does not seem to incite to action, but if any

I was a person much I do I have received credit, and in my own view done well on some occasions; yet I am pretty sure I have had an over--estimate of my abilities.
Both O may God strengthen me to use faithfully whatever he has entrusted me with; and if in any respect He has favored me, may it stir me up only to more earnest, loving & untiring toil.

To rest contented in view of past attainments, or of the bare possession, of sacred or real of sanctified talents, is a sign that a fire is low somewhere — It is foolish in the person and towards God it is faithless.

Preached yesterday once more — 1 Tim 1:15 "This is a faithful Saying &c" Did not feel the same warmth as a week since. Mr Chyne is said to have felt first the truth in his own case & then to have feeling urged it on others and here I fail. Mr Homer did not show himself at all, but after breakfast went into his State room and then remained. I hope the Lord may reward and bless him in some way. I am in doubt as to the right course to pursue in writing and to him; but think it shall be this — To treat him civilly at the table, and answer him kindly the questions he addresses me; but to begin no conversation with him.

Last evening on deck Mr Addison was inclining the voyage indeed that he might pursue his business; and he might gain as much real good here, and more by reflection the Lord be praised every night & morning that God would give him wisdom to be obedient to all his Commandments. I told him he needed to have the pardon also of past Sins & this he seemed to feel & only Come thro' &. Will said I Make thorough work, go to the root don't stop to lop off Leaves & Branches of Sin — but get pardon thro' Christ & devote yourself entirely to God's Service; he said he had nothing to say why he shd not. And there he stands, but I hope the Spirit will lead him further. He lacks the προθυμία of decision; but is well meaning & shd think: not to be confided in. He said he had heard some persons on board say they did not believe in the Bible &c — he had no such feelings. I did not ask him who, tho I have not much doubt it was the man who keeps in his St. room on Sabbath. However after exchange of compliments with him he avowed no such opinion; but one day afterwards asked me if I had ever read Volney's Ruins. If sceptical, his scepticism rests on authority not on conviction of argument, and backs up a worldly life.

I felt earnest in prayer for my brothers & sisters — also for my father & mother, that they might have a Spirit of prayer for them.

Monday. December 14. 1845

The Voyage still lingers, but I hope my old and joking fears will prove correct that if Christmas we shall arrive. Visit. to Lenice, Sec. weather was rough, and Capt. not able not; was prepared.
Read Edwards life; several Sermons, and Remarks on Baird What large views he had as in his letter to Brethren of N. York some God help me to lay out and do some of his designs!

And yet there may be more wish here to leave a great name than to do God service. Still why descend to these lower motives Why not feel more alone to God than to all other beings? And in a child's confidential communion with Him regulate my resolves and efforts? O for such a supreme regard to my God, as his Son, to be ever with me.

When dust is done with the perishing base dust, we are apt to wish to do more than is necessary: but Love knows no such limit all that is possible is its motto.

Friend. Night Dec. 16. 1845.

The long voyage, still promises to be longer; Northerly winds now for some 20 Days - Very unusual But it is Gods will, and who knows better than He! What is the end in view I see not & perhaps never shall; but the end it is a good one - and in time he he will show it me, and I will be on the lookout.

The determination Expressed Dec 8.th seems on reflection questionable I cannot make an intimate of one who slights religion, and yet am I at liberty to prescribe him, or cut his acquaintance? and wd it not be better to shew kindness even to those who oppose themselves; since it is men cant be driven to Godliness, but they may be won.
The fear a "Simple" character may attach to me, and thus lead men to dislike Gospel principles sometimes puts me in doubt as to how to act towards men about me.

Thurs. December 18. 1845.

At three this A. M Capstain H. waked me and said the land was under our lee: and had a gale of wind come on from that we shd inevitably have sustained disaster. At noon on Sunday 25 miles distant: an error had been made in taking the altitude yesterday morning - of a degree.
I did not realize the peril at the time and lay still; and afterwards said a foolish thing that it was of no use to get out of warm bed and round sleep to go on deck & see what I did not wish to see This wd have been far better unsaid: sure there was no sec. of rising, but a joke ill became me among careless men, at a time of Danger from wh. tho' escaping we had not escaped after C. told me I prayed we might be safe with a mind to suffer no hand. And then my mind ran on what I wd do: if cast ashore alive, and I thot I wd take my Bible and hoped I might teach the Savages the way of Heaven. But God has shewn us great mercy: for no sooner was the Land seen than the wind headed several points & let us run NW by W Mark & to night we are 100 miles from the Spot of Land, and 60 from the Main. Good Captain Harvey with tears in his eyes expressed to me his sense of Gods goodness & Father made short of Mr Addison at last, & said S^r God have done no good by going on deck at 3 o'clock, and so lay still: he S^d we S^r all have gone if life was in danger - all laughed and I said - That ought to be a phenoshow them was no occasion for such a reply; and my nettlesome temper made me discuss the matter rather harshly. I must be on my guard. It's probably best to say nothing further about it: but the kind hearted fellow. Once before I caught him for saying the French was a feminine language. Such things are very wrong.

He is a forward wordy self-opinionated young man, tho' generally well meaning. And a day or two since I s^d there were in Mechanics more men went inventions-mad than any where else. He understood men who are mechanics; and despised that he thot much. not. Mr Carter sd no the same was y all past pasts. Mr Barton said such was a part of Society. I then told him what I meant the Learned of much. that a much. who fills his post was to be honored; tho he was not at the head of Society - that he had his place in it, ought to know and keep it. This was plain hint, and I can hardly blame myself for giving it: for if regarded it will do him good. Others of them smiles took it if he did such, I hope he did; tho I meant it in no unkind spirit.

A man's worth consists not in the Station he occupies, but rather in his filling it well: when he does this he is to be respected, otherwise he cannot be of the good.

At Same time a porter who fills his post with as much worth as a Lawyer or a Clergyman, is not to be put on a par with him. He is to be honored but not in the Same manner or measure.

And yet a faithful trusty porter is more to be honored than a man in high Station who lacks these qualities.

Sabbath Dec. 21. 1845.

This morning did not get up till near 8 o'Clock, and missed Morning prayers, for which I am sorry. When at home I do hope to rise earlier: but truth is the most Comfortable place lately has been the Bed. I have preached from John 3:18 'Condemned already' and shown to persons the truth home on those about me; the voyage is ending and no print appears — tho I hope & pray the seed may not have been scattered. Lucy

I have been benefited in the Efforts made to look into God truth and present it to others.
I see and feel a sense of unfaithfulness in neglecting to present it; and in praying for the H. Spirit to enforce it. Yet enough has been spoken to lead to the use of neglect.

And I hope to be more alive to the worth of Souls hereafter; and more vigorous in effort for their Conversion.
How near my field may I be aided to be faithful in it remembering that I am to give acc.

I wrote yesterday a letter to My Dear Sister Caroline . . in which I said one of the greatest causes of indecision doubtless was the treatment persons have in the Call of Christ. Owning the, of Xn. subjects, most important, and they treat it in a delaying shuffling manner, not decided to to settle it, not to cast it away And thus a habit is formed, wh. affects more or less the whole of life. And the same thing holds in regard to the Ch. in performing his specific duties.
Be then decided on this subject — decide to be a Xn at headquarters &

All yet I have said nothing to Mr Carter, tho' am determined to do so, before leaving the Ship either by word of mouth or by pen.

I have to day been engaged in reading Bps. on Relig. affections just begun 2d part; What am not deciding signs as to affections being gracious or no.

A good Subject for writing would be Manners; or the wide sense Ethics.

Have Spoken to Mr Carter – rec'd very kindly, but doubts a diff[t] and good other as will hold him still.

Wed. Dec. 24. 1845.

Chiefly engaged about going ashore now; wind too light for landing, or make Harbor to night: fear I shall not get on shore in time for the Communion wh. I long to do

Thurs. Rose at 4 as the light came on Land ho! Land ahead; very little wind, soon aheart of it & near Valp° point. Hills bleak & barren not a tree in sight - some a Cactus on one little top. Appearance very inviting; our Boat

Wdh. Dec. 31. 1845

Last day of the year, has come very quickly. Steam is on. Ostertag went up to Mr Hobsons & Spent the Evening. Tried to make myself agreeable & found the ladies so; told Mrs H. about Laura Bridgman. Reminds me of D. Brigham. Two daughters grown up. Miss Ellen & Miss Elizabeth, very agreeable but more of them hereafter.

Capt. Starbuck has left us some Chinese artificial flowers; very handsome, the taste of the ladies favored the more red & showy ones gaudy—I did not contradict them.
Mrs M. having retd from the Country I did not get to bid Miss after all. A delicate kind lady & very sensible; unostentatious.
An Estimable Couple I have found in them.

In the forenoon I called on Mr Armstrong & saw his Lady with Mr Proctor also of the Admiral's Ship Collingwood; just from the Islands &c found one much information about them; knew the Missionaries work, had prayed for them. Invited to dine them on Thursd. at 5 p.m.

Thursd. Jan. 1. 1846.

secession in Scotland was rather hard — all might have been gained by waiting awhile seemed to think Dr Chalmers head and shoulders above any body else in Scotland: that Dr Cumming was an awkward fellow, tho a fine preacher. A pleasant old man; says in Banant are many Trumbulls, all big good men; they are called Trumbulls the head Rouldard.

Called on the Amstrays; who is to go with me to Am. hospitals at 10 tomorrow: kindly invited Sam & his lady to come first & visit them. Call'd too on Miss Walsh; asked me to dine, declined; bec. of my head.

Mr Hanby met me in Bath and said he waited till 10 o'k for me on Sabb. morning; knew that he had not been in church & did not say he had to leave; tho do not think I had promised to call for me.

Then read 2 dozen pages in Emmons Hist. Theol.

Just sent letters to Mrs White & Sister to Cincinnati, Pa Mr & Cath, Elvira Hope, Brotherton & Swayzlick.

attempts at wit, or small Satire Made up of quotations from the Poets – but little connected remark upon same day.

I enquired once Sir Thaddeus and he says why do you not come up in the evening? he seems inclined to aid me, and I wd speak to Capt. for Rs the Grange for next Sabb. But I must avoid becoming familiar with him, for being a careless talker, he will speak too freely to me — and thus ruin my influence wd be injured.

Thursd. Jany. 15 1845.

Wrote some Sketches in book.
After Bfast sat down and read Stirl. de Chile, kept at it till Dinner. After read 1 or 2 Chapters of Headleystall, pleased.
Called on Mrs Hobson, met a Mrs Rowe, English Lady: returning visit Mrs H. said I must not be formal & wait for him to call first. He might fail to do the con-ventionally, bec. of business I told him I should. Mrs Riley invited me to dine, but I had a-

Upset my Gum. in hot and on his Wheeling to the center table, being cov'd with Oil Cloth, did not much harm. Jany. 16. 1846.

Rose 5 pr to allow to Mrs Riley to Board with her 2 W., She asked me to remain all day, but I not knowing called me back and refd.

Capt. Haney paid me 22.75 bal. of 40.00 had on Chappelle in Balt., after taking out 17.25 for a dozen shares. He refused to take freight for my horses. He has mounted me things as follows -

Bethel flag. ~~Made 2/6~~.	9.00
" " making	6.00
Chair	4.00
Brush Bric, Bibles &c	1.00
" getting baggage ashore	1.50
Loan to Bibles	15.00
Form Worden Letter	12.00.
Freight on the boxes	12.00

I met Capt. Mackintosh H. Majesty's Frigate, he had a note in store for me; nothing of importance; only this he said I was in time for Dinner. Will send for the flag, and will send a Horse for me on Sabb. morning.

I dined with Mr Riley & my agreeably, he is very polite
- a real gentleman. In his conversing he told me that there was no Treaty's news from England as to U.S. relations - he said if G. Britain would not in the start ignorance, and with her disclosed means she would have no hope soon.

Mr Forth said I seemed, she can't do it' and then he went on to show on strength. 'But' said I 'if she would steal Mr Smith's Concentrated forces, she would capture the Chief ports, and knock us into a Cocked hat'. Hamilton started Capt. Harry, and he was really eloquent. How sat Mrs Fitz, and I enjoying the patriotic earnestness of these two gentlemen Some young Englishman put in a word to me about England and having whipped the U. S. which he and with a round turn, that "She never had any Claim to say such a thing, having twice tried & failed" No more was heard from the youth.

The Lily said I cd not be a peace man when it had matters into such a stir & so called out the war spirit I replied I had expressed no opin on the matter of war; only of its ex-pediency to us. Capt. H. said why wd take a Musket yourself & go out? yes said I as a volly. but if occasion shd call for it. - Perhaps this honest man should think as to the propriety of saying it.

After the preceding, there was no trouble about digestion we were all soon in good health, and, after recreation much on board the Mississippi & in Hobbs's journal, we have passed in how very pleasantly.
The Ship is manifestly much better decks, weighs & looks a vast deal better than it did when we first saw it. Indeed it were some time, before it will look call there a day or two since Arrived on the ground of Downs!
Mr. H. went on shore, and saw Mrs. Hobbs & Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Magnay came on board & read prayers, &

At the Brooks - they talked about theatres opera &c to each other, tho' they probably cd all they cd think of to me: we went to tea, but I cd not think another cup - unless my good - this was very soon & I left it.
Theatres again talked of; I back in the N. Road to my relief & some thing else about Keogh. who had their affairs made white alive - not meant to die on such a day &c: homeward must have each talk sometimes. Call in at the Armstrongs for a few moments to get Kit home. Saw beautiful mooning.

Saturday. Jany. 1846.

Rose at 6; Cobbin my Lead. Went to see Capt. Hanny & did not much in forenoon; very warm in the Sun. Shut the Window of the Hoot; a very wint priest walked under a Lamp red and the Lamp one & attendant, while there were what seemed Lantern a dozen; and Some one say a bell, Some Knell, others ring round Stein hats: I entered Alsop & Co's.

Have read Some Chili History.

Monday. January 19. 1846.

Sick. Rose with a Cold in Head & Sore nose. At 10 Called on Mr Hanley - who after Some Hesitation on account of fatigue went with me to the Store, here the Captain Came with his Boat and took us all off to his Ship. There seemed few or no American Faces. Some from Mississippi. An Audience of 40 or 50 gathered & gave good attention while

I preached from 2 Cor 10: 12 Comparing Selves &c. Afterwards I spoke to most of the Inhabitants Mr Robinson was on board Shalloping; I invited I and held Service on Shore, that many might attend: one said a Man named Hallett. Capt. against it as a Shore; he was a worthy man; Solemn in Prayer; seemed grateful for having worshipped on the Lords day. I felt encouraged by his Conduct and Language.

In Today proposed at once at the meeting of a church or Denominational Worship; & subscribed 20. Co dollars & got others to do same; & to prepare a Subscription. Called on the Bell, Brandt Proctor; quite good. Capt. Hay came in the evening; Spoke of the church to him, & advised it. Conversation was rather too much of the world. Went to bed with some headache from cold at 9 1/2.

Sunday. January. 20. 1846.

From Capt. Mitchell had sent my flag ashore in a strong nice bag. Bad thing almost a sink on my road. Sore much pain: begin taking Cheltenham Salts, teaspoonful in a tumbler of water. Read Some Spanish Writ.

Went in the 5th to the Varieties Music Room again — too many people, heavy, and little: Mr & Mrs H. are very civil to me.

Wed. January 21. 1846.

Rose aboard ship on board Euphania to bfast: Saw Mrs.
Drake her last.

1/Past. 9 o'clock went on board this A. to take on Capt. as he is detained; glad to see me, 10 pay my board bill 4/- " 12 " when came back & read to my Chapel Subscription
- I did not ask him, was his own affair.

Mr Tenny this morning sent me and gave in Subs. book & I have out Subs. 259.87 dollars and gain he paid me 21.50 dollars & for his own health. Buntin & Leaird are in Wm. May the Lord smile on the Enterprise and make it succeed.

Thursd. Jany 22.

Rose late with Sore fullness of head, ate light breakfast. Morning lowry almost a rain, 2nd. of groaning rain.
Went on board Coal Store Ship with Mr Wadsl, to see if we could have a chapel, that Sun - application to be made to Mr Boardman, who having subsc & given an answer will & hope be favorable if he can.
Went to Hospital: Thompson old man is feeble & seemed to listen

Friday. Jany 23. 1846.

Rose at 7. better. Corrs Mr + I finish pages in to 80 more books. + how happy should I shall be up to Jm Journeying. Coast. Not in.

Mr A & Capt. Gardiner, formerly of Royal Navy, a man of war Mr Capt ab 3 yr. Capt. G. is much interested for the Indians of this land. Much among them says are superior to the Chilian Spaniards. Has with him a young man Commenced at Cadiz under preaching of the Methodist Clergymen who are placed there and sent away a few years ago who will go to learn the language and then settle among them.

He says the way to work is to go to the back bone of S America the old Mercantile road; one or two active men to follow the track of it as Col Porters. Seems energetic and full of his object.
Call'd on Mr Hobson, no one at home; met them at foot of the stairs — did not ask us back probably from inadvertence.

called on Mr Ruby. had gone out, to his Cottage!

I have made free to write Mr and to ask for some hymn books.

Saturday. Sunny. 24. 1846.

Rose at 6 and walked on the Sh. N. Came home great appetite.
Tried to get a vessel for reading ringer than Capt. Jones but he did not succeed. He will be glad to have it there, with Land Boat.

Mr Boardman says must wait

Light dinner, &c. I came late.
Visit to Mr Wm Hookson book-keeping Went to Hospital again, & left some tracts, gladly received.
Bought to day a Guayaquil Hat $6.00.
Last night Mr Meek introduced me to me. To day Mr Ellsworth Rid Lame.

Sabb. Jany 25. 1846.

Lainw was held on Co and the Lachy. Capt Trumbull. The good old man asked me to drink a glass of wine after; but I declined.

Mr Barod called on me about noon; before I shut of it I had sd I am glad to see you: & I was not he c. of the day. I meant to say but little, but has something of reasons for attending it; to do good, & get good &c. I sd it was first of all to worship God. He sd even that is done for our happiness. We we thy him and he takes care we are happy for it. Then he sd he did nothing to blame himself for – this was sweeping and I held up Gods meas. of love with all the heart: this imposs. claim he that absurd. S^t I tis a standard of char. not a term of Salvation our failure of reaching it shews need of a Savior.

He asked if Howard would be lost without belg in Christ? & I Gods Standard in supposable things is the only true one, and this we have in his word. Who feels of it, needs help; to this point we must come not for despair, but to see our need of a Savior.

More and more am I convinced that selfishness, blindness, ignorance of self & of God's law, ruins souls all the time. May he be led to see himself differently. He is a vain man tho he seems kind.

The day before I was thinking of that very thing a very moral kind man, who he fails of it. And it then seemed does he come up to the perfect mind of Mr. Christ? If he does all is well; if not, God cannot accept him with freedom and not compromise his Gospel any more than a greater sinner. Since if he come not thro Christ how can he come at all?

Mond. Evg. 26. 1846.

Home at 6 with Bradbury Smith
- rather professionally. Gott some new inventions to greater attention in my Sphere of Duty.
Read Span. 3 hours.
Walk out, Capt Immediate

Gave me ten dollars towards my bill. Seems to be a very pious old man: will be back in 6 weeks.

Friday. Jan 27. 1846.

Most of day spent on Gal 2:21 I called on Capt. Gardner & his friend Mr Gonsalves: they are to go with first wind down the Coast, and then make an inland tour. The young man has been in Eng. in the

at Christian Hosp. visited me to attend this morning his burial - but a note has come to say there is some hindrance, his friends not having raised money to pay Cobbs 20 dollars. Poor Dutch, he was a believer in toxicated O; and thus foreigners here throw [illegible] away here.

Wedn. Jan 28.

Rose not till 6 ½.

Walked out and asked the Welsh about a room on shore to preach in to Seamen; that one o'clock wd be on the look out.

Read some Spanish; and Studied on John 17:3. Refused dinner &c. going to Mr Riley's - went thereat 4. but the dining room was not in order; and a small table sett Elsewhere, so I came a back Island young man; but I can't converse with my boy.

Friday Morning. May 30.

Rose at 6 P.M. Took tea & an hour & a half. Wrote a note for Captain Ellis of the Bobrick Steam ship this morning. Cloudy mild time, & left Port Stanley at 11 A.M.
Capt. Brant & Mr Ray came to the Ramon and left for Tahiti.

Much pleased with these lines found in Headlong Hall Page 37

Shun Lovers then who shun not me.

Saturday. January. 31. 1846.

Rose again not until 8 o'clock, staged indolent; unwilling to rise & when risen sorry I did not rise sooner.

The Whaling Ship moving up to her Cottage.

Went down to procure a vessel; waited 2 hours for Capt Ellis of Rod. Thus: he said he would accomodate me but he had not any awning & a small Cabin.

Then took a boat, went to the Undaunted, Capt. Sd Capt not there. Dana, was along side. Lately and discharg^d into the Am. Sam Frat. given a month Lim. ad, to on Sabb. they pay a fine.

Next also to Capt. Bennet s^d something to do with the Gov^t. Ships of G. Britain (by) w^ch he interrupted a good reason.

Then went on another and also s^d the Capt. he lost Capt Silvo Thom & Ladeen at sea and a fine awning in the Cuttans.
Then he ceased counselling, said he s^d be away. As^d his mate w^d he stay, and the place w^d be convenient. Wh then he said we had written each this time; but we'd see how his men felt about it and if they liked it he would give the use of his vessel on the next Sabbath.

At this I began to give up; it was coming ashore, but made one more trial and succeeded in the Scotch Boy Daniel Capt Paul.
